

Build and Broaden: Conference on Social Connections to Promote Individual and Community Resilience in Post-COVID-19 Society

SUPPORTED BY NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION #2037433

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT ARLINGTON

REGISTER
FREE

RSVP HERE

VIRTUAL SESSION - 1
AUG 11TH, 2PM-4PM (CST)

PRESENTATIONS

DR. NATALIA VILLANUEVA ROSALES

Associate Professor, Department of Computer Science,
The University of Texas at El Paso

Topic: Fostering Social Connectedness
In Older Adults Through Synergistic
Collaborations Between Engineering,
Social Sciences, And Community Engagement.

DR. FANG JIN

Assistant Professor, Department of Statistics,
The George Washington University
Topic: Build Covid-19 Knowledge Graph
Using Deep Learning.

DR. CATHERINE LABRENZ

Assistant Professor, School of Social Work,
The University of Texas at Arlington

Topic: Tensions, Challenges, And Resistance Among Academic Mothers During
The Covid-19 Pandemic.

MODERATED DISCUSSIONS

ON INTERDISCIPLINARY COLLABORATIONS: OPPORTUNITIES & BARRIERS

MODERATOR

UPCOMING SESSIONS

VIRTUAL SESSION - 2 SEP 17TH, 2PM-4PM (CST)

IN-PERSON CONFERENCE OCT 7TH & 8TH, HILTON ARLINGTON

For more info, please visit our website: <https://socialconnectionsconference.uta.edu>
Also, opportunities to meet with other professionals "virtually" and discuss interdisciplinary collaboration opportunities.