Build and Broaden: Conference on Social Connections to Promote Individual and Community Resilience in Post-COVID-19 Society

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT ARLINGTON

COMING UP

VIRTUAL SESSION - 1
AUG 11TH, 2PM-4PM (CST)

PRESENTATIONS

DR. FANG JIN

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR IN THE DEPARTMENT OF STATISTICS AT THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

TOPIC:
BUILD COVID-19 KNOWLEDGE GRAPH USING DEEP LEARNING

DR. NATALIA VILLANUEVA ROSALES

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF COMPUTER SCIENCE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT EL PASO.

TOPIC:
FOSTERING SOCIAL CONNECTEDNESS IN OLDER ADULTS THROUGH SYNERGISTIC COLLABORATIONS BETWEEN ENGINEERING, SOCIAL SCIENCES, AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT.

DR. CATHERINE LABRENZ

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT ARLINGTON SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

TOPIC:
TENSIONS, CHALLENGES, AND RESISTANCE AMONG ACADEMIC MOTHERS DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC.

MODERATED DISCUSSIONS

ON INTERDISCIPLINARY COLLABORATIONS: OPPORTUNITIES & BARRIERS

MODERATOR

Registration is free and available at: https://socialconnectionsconference.uta.edu/registration/

Also, opportunities to meet with other professionals "virtually" and discuss interdisciplinary collaboration opportunities.